He may have a lot on his plate but that is not stopping him from achieving his goal. (:16) TAKE SOT- KENDALL RALPH “I want to start a film making club, sketch comedy club just like I did in High School cause I think that’s one of my passions.” (:08) TRACK 2 Which has not been an easy process. (:04) TAKE SOT- KENDALL “It’s a long process. And I’m working on it. I have to organize and find people, register with the school. I’m trying to develop a mission statement right now...” (:10) TRACK 3 The process may be long, but it is beneficial. Engagement in the fine arts are an essential part to anyone’s education. (:7) TAKE SOT- LIZZIE BRADSHAW “...arts brings out the fun in life. Kind of like

(:07) TAKE SOT LIZZIE "Just to bring people together is the most important thing. But I think that the idea of a sketch club is to make a home... well not make a home but make it a fun thing that you have away from your studies." (:07) TRACK 5 Even engineering students need to take a break sometimes. Cooper Tonachel, a senior studying Civil Engineering, is interested in joining the club. TAKE SOT- COOPER TONACHEL "It gives students a way to branch out and release stress that builds up through course work, through jobs, through any other stressors that happen through college." (:09)
